TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction 1
Giuliana Dettori, Tania Giannetti, Ana Paiva and Ana Vaz

2. And they both lived happily ever after? 5
Digital stories and learning
Ruth Aylett

3. Narrative-oriented software for the learning of a foreign language 27
Tools helping young people to develop communication skills
Jeffrey Earp and Tania Giannetti

4. Reflective narration with e-mail 41
Issues concerning its implementation
Bregje de Vries

5. OTTomer 55
An interactive adventure system for children
Patricia Valinho and Nuno Correia

6. Speak for yourself! 67
Developing narrative within a multimedia, multimodal ICT environment
Fern Faux

7. Can character perspective induce reflection? 79
Using perspective in narrative learning environments
Ana Vaz and Ana Paiva

8. On narrative perception and creativity 91
The role of video editing in eliciting them from children
Chronis Kynigos, Nikos Kazazis and Katerina Makri

9. Story structures 103
Building narrative trails in museums
Kevin Walker

10. Narrative for motivation and meaning making 115
Examples from the universe of LEGO High Tech Toys
Olga Timcenko

11. Methods for evaluating a dramatic game 123
Capturing subjective enjoyment of dramatic experiences
Jarmo Laaksolathi

12. Narrative creation and self-regulated learning 133
Analyzing the support given by a technology-mediated authoring tool
Giuliana Dettori and Tania Giannetti

13. Considerations on technology-mediated narrative learning environments 143
An analysis of some of their narrative and educational qualities
Carola Conle

List of contributors 161

Subject index 163